IT'S VILLAGE CLEAN-UP TIME

3-Day Centennial Schedule Announced

Gala Parade, Pageant Top Full Program

Preparations for Antioch's three-day Civil War Centennial observance June 23-25 entered final stages as the steering committee under chairmanship of Dr. James W. Kopriva today announced a full schedule of events.

The festival will officially open June 23 with an evening parade followed by a pageant. Events scheduled for Saturday, June 24, will feature judging of Civil War essays, costume contest and exhibit openings. A public street dance will round out the day.

An "old-fashioned" barbecue Sunday afternoon will bring the city-wide festival to an end.

Here is the schedule:

8:15 p.m.—Centennial pageant in the high school auditorium by Pallette, Masque and Lyre. Presented by narrator, accompanied by music and pantomime.

Saturday, June 24

10:30 a.m.—Judging of Civil War essay contest, sponsored by State Bank of Antioch.

The beard-growing contest is open to all males of the area, it was announced. Entries may be made at The Antioch News; Snow White Restaurant and Moose Lodge.

Bell Names New Chief Operator

Mrs. Irene V. Noble

Mrs. Irene V. Noble, RR 4, group chief operator in the Antioch offices of Illinois Bell, has been promoted to acting chief operator. She replaces Mrs. Nancy Reichardt, former chief operator, who has been named chief in the Libertyville office.

Mrs. Noble, a veteran of 25 years with Illinois Bell, has held several different positions in the traffic department. She is a member of the Women of the Moose and Friends ship chairman.

She and her husband, Ben, have a son, Ronald, and a daughter, Gall Kondelk.

Fire Department Steals March On Village

The Antioch Fire Department was one-up on residents as the city prepared for its annual Clean-up Week, May 15-20.

With a decorator's touch, Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen and his crews this week completed a full exterior-interior decorating job that occupied the off-hours of the 40-man volunteer force over the past weeks.

The one-story structure is now a sleek white, and interiors have been redone in pale yellow with gray wainscoting.

With building and equipment gleaming with a sparkling "new" look, the department is set to breeze through the week-long, village-wide clean-up program and is looking forward to June 24, when it will host a city-wide street dance as part of the three-day Civil War Centennial festival.

In recapping department activities over the past year, Chief Simonsen tallied the thousands of hours of non-pay duty served each year by local firemen.

During 1959-60, each fireman spent an average of 100 hours on fire calls, for an aggregate of 2200 man hours. Practice and fire drill averaged out at 36 hours per man, and totaled approximately 36 hours per man, for an aggregate of another approximate 1000 hours.

Each crewman averaged 16 hours in station decorating, for a total of over 500 hours.

Each man averages more than 765 hours annually, more than 9 weeks.

Lions Press Festival Plan; Work on Pool

Early completion of the souvenir book commemorating Antioch's Civil War Centennial Festival June 23-25 was set as a prime target by members of the Lions Club.

The book is being sponsored by the Club as an adjunct to the three-day festival and will contain a history of the village and milestones in its growth. Plans call for a hard-bound volume, complete with advertising and editorial, which will be sold for $1.

Also discussed by Lions was the annual spring golf outing to be held May 24 at Spring Valley. Dinner will follow golf. Heading up plans for the outing are William Seemann, Robert Wilton, Irv. Carey and Howard Shepard.

Plans were approved for rehabilitation of the swimming pool in preparation for the season. Len Roblin, chairman of the Community Service Committee, announced that the official emblem of the Civil War Centennial will be painted on the bottom center of the pool. The emblem consists of crossed United States and Confederate flags superimposed over the figures of a Union and Confederate soldier.

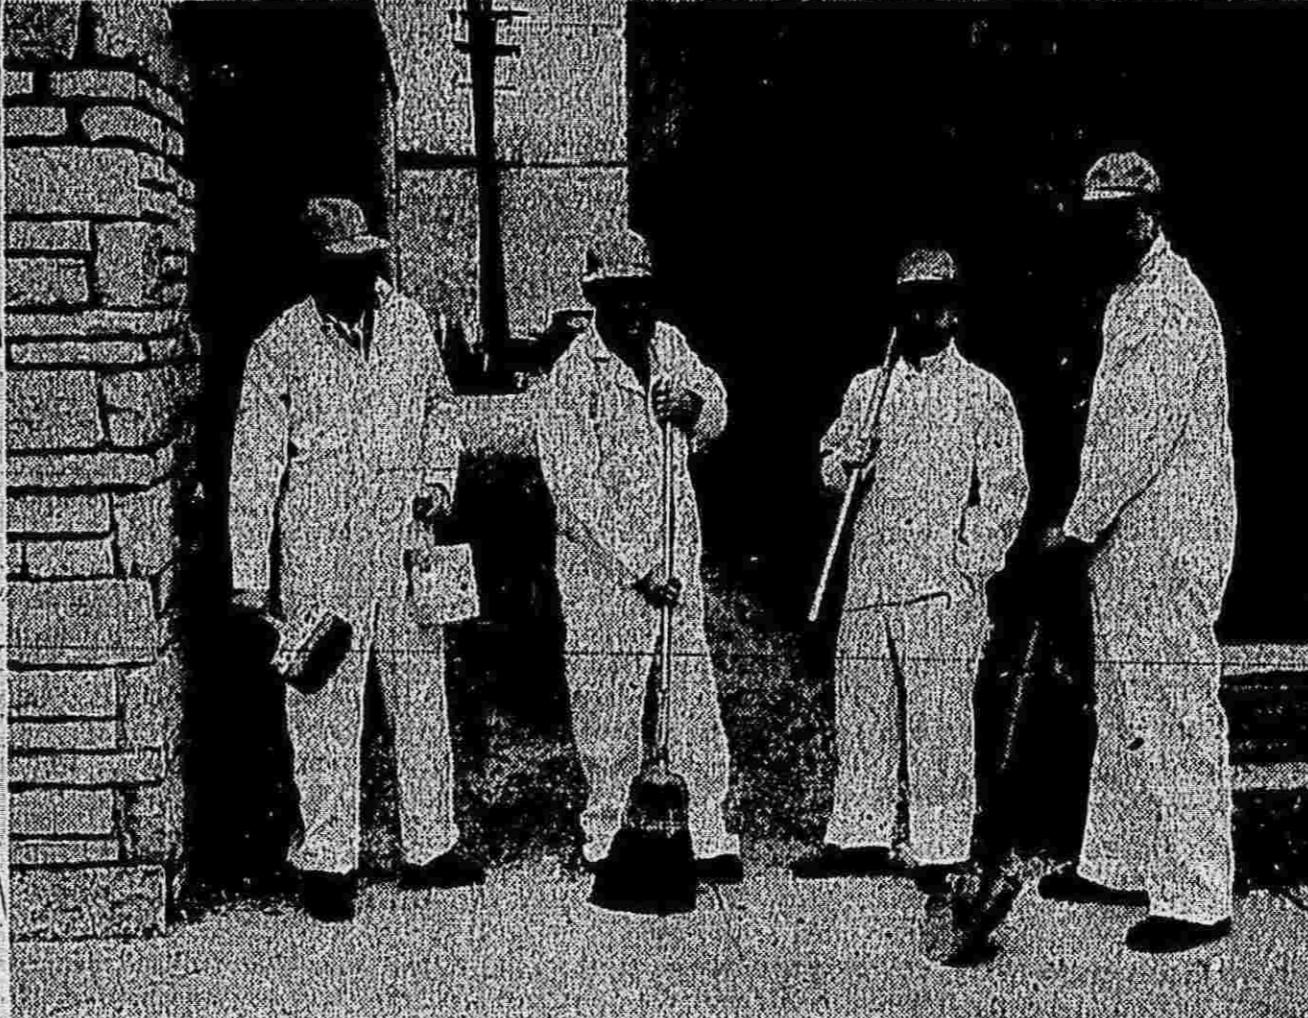

New members inducted at the meeting were: Don Hood, Dave Cain, Bill Vos, Dr. Edward Abberholden, John Fries, Bob Wilton, Dick Radke and Robert Calloway.

Proclaim Saturday Safety Patrol Day

The governors of Illinois and Indiana have proclaimed this Saturday as School Safety Patrol Day in their respective states to honor the 61,000 patrol boys and girls who wear the Chicago Motor Club's white Sam Browne belts.

Gov. Otto Kerner of Illinois, Gov. Matthew E. Welsh of Indiana, and numerous mayors throughout the two states have issued the proclamations to coincide with National School Safety Patrol Day.

In recognizing the Patrols, the officials noted that this is the 41st anniversary of the inception of the organization, which was pioneered by the motor club in 1920.

Facial Foliage Sprouts as Gay Blades Get the Spirit

Blossoming chin foliage is today occupying that interest and concern normally devoted to thinning pates as village menfolk prepared to enter the final stretch in the "Brothers of the Brush" contest which will reach its climax during the forthcoming Civil War Centennial Celebration here June 23-25.

No one has consulted the wives in this bearding contest and no one intends to. However, it would be interesting to obtain their reactions to the adornment that now appears on the faces of various local males.

One Charles "The Beaver" Cermak, who now boasts more on his chin than most have on their heads, reports a standoff between his better half, who is not exactly enamored, and the children, who gain many moments of delight caressing dad's adornment.

He cautions, however, against a sudden, unannounced appearance in familiar places. Once close friends are apt to carelessly toss him a slice

Troop 92 Cancels Local Paper Drive

The current paper drive of Boy Scout Troop 92 has been cancelled, according to Troop leaders. Basic reason is the fact that proceeds from the sale of the paper were running less than expense of picking up, it was reported.

Scouts had been collecting paper the last Saturday of each month.

of bread and curly tail him to "hit the road."

This situation will be alleviated, he feels, when more males, and others who can, have had sufficient time to make a showing.

Meanwhile, men, pay no heed to the weaver's protests, throw away that razor and get in the swim. The contest is open to one and all.

IN HOSPITAL

Preston Reckers, cashier of the State Bank of Antioch, is patient at Victory Memorial Hospital in Waukegan. He entered the hospital Friday for treatment and is expected home shortly.

Lake Villa VFW Maps Memorial Day Observance

LAKE VILLA—The Lake Villa VFW Memorial Day parade will form at Central School at 10 a.m., May 30, and the march will begin at 10:30 a.m., according to Joseph C. Botts, parade marshal.

Botts said all units desiring to participate should notify the VFW Post, and they are urged to be at the gathering point at 10 o'clock sharp.

A new feature in the parade this year will be bicycles decorated by boys and girls in the fifth to eighth grades. Boys and girls wishing to participate may decorate their bikes and be at Central School by 9:30 a.m., where judges will pick first, second and third place winners.

After the parade, cash prizes will be awarded to the bike winners at the Memorial Center, Lehmann Park.

Immediately after the memorial services at Lehmann Park, there will be open house at the VFW hall, with food, refreshments and dancing.

NEW ARRIVAL

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Blumberg are the parents of a daughter, born in Condell Memorial Hospital, Libertyville.

New medical and surgical patients at the hospital last week included Jeanette Maule and David White of Antioch and Joseph Jasenski and Mrs. Mary Olsar of Lake Villa.

SPRING IS BUSTIN' out all over down at the fire house where volunteer crewmen have just finished a clean-up and decorating job—inside and out—in preparation for the forthcoming Centennial celebration here next month.

5-Day Spruce Up Campaign Open May 15

Village officials today urged all residents to participate in the community-wide clean-up drive next week.

The program will get under way at 8 p.m. Monday evening, May 15, with a parade moving from Antioch Township High School to the village parking lot.

The annual drive is being sparked by the Chamber of Commerce and the Village Board, who urge all property owners to mop-up and clean-up.

So ferret out that forgotten debris in attic and hidden corners; check the front and back yards; and if the situation warrants, meet your neighbor halfway in the middle of the street with broom and mop in hand.

To facilitate village clean-up efforts, officials have planned specific pick-up periods for various sections of town.

Pick-up service for north Antioch, from Depot Street to the village limits will take place Wednesday, May 17.

Pick-up service for south Antioch, from Depot Street to village limits will be done Thursday, May 18.

Band Rates Excellent in State Meet

The Antioch Township High School Band, fresh from last week's state finals competition at Willowbrook High in Villa Park where it rated an "excellent," is currently putting finishing touches on its spring concert-dance Saturday, May 20.

High school bandmen captured four superiors, four excellents and five good ratings in the state-wide competition.

Antioch solos and ensembles winning top recognition were: superior—A. Albert, tympani; F. Gebhardt, tuba; percussion ensemble consisting of J. Wetterberg, V. Schneider, A. Albert, C. Sherwood, M. Gillum and R. Miller.

Also rating a superior was the saxophone quintet of H. Young, B. Oilschlager, B. Van Patten, J. Burke and R. Prossie.

A number of outstanding features are being carded for the concert-dance band concert on May 20.

According to Director Joseph Rush, guest conductor will be Richard Brittain, director of bands, VanderCook College of Music. Guest soloist will be Thomas Knoflicek, director of bands at Beach Park School.

The dance band will play for a dance to follow the concert, something new for this event.

The concert will start at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium and will be open to the public. Tickets are available from high school band students and at the door—adults $1; students 50 cents.

Stamp Enthusiast To Show Collection

George C. Eckert, Rt. 1, Antioch, will exhibit 18 pages of cancer seals from the United States and foreign countries at the Lake County Philatelic Society exhibition May 13-14 in Waukegan.

In the Eckert display will be two shipping labels with personal autographs of Suzanne Ball and "Babe" Didrikson Zaharias, former movie star and sports personality, and both cancer victims.

Eckert is a member of various card and stamp collecting groups including the Christmas Seal and Charity Stamp Society, Postcard Collector's Club and is president of Chicago Chapter No. 2.

Dr. Kopriva Attends UI Medical Sessions

Dr. James W. Kopriva, 707 North Main St., attended a two-day faculty-alumni conference of the University of Illinois College of Medicine held recently in Chicago.

The conference marked the first time the U of I College of Medicine alumni and faculty had met together in discussion sessions to explore mutual interests.

Fifteen faculty members and 15 alumni joined in the two-day discussions.

EDITORIAL

A Lesson in Economics

We don't know of a more worthwhile activity for boys than Boy Scouting. Nor, in our experience, is there an activity which is more widely commanded and supported by various communities than Scouting. And Antioch is no exception.

Boy Scouts here and elsewhere pride themselves on an initiative and independence of spirit that bodes well for the future.

Under leaders who unselfishly spend countless hours in guiding their charges, those lads engaged in Scouting acquire knowledge and skills available nowhere else.

Not the least of these is the truism that "If it's worthwhile, having it's worthwhile working for."

That's one reason we are sorry to report that Boy Scout Troop 92 has cancelled its paper drive here.

The drive was conceived as a fund-raising effort by the Troop wherein the sale of paper collected throughout the village would bring in funds to buy much-needed equipment.

However, it soon became apparent to Scout leaders that the paper drive was a bit of reverse economy . . . the effort and cost of collecting the paper totaled more than proceeds grossed from sale of the paper.

Thus, while a worthwhile Scout project has been nipped in the bud by the cold, hard economic fact of life, the effort has not been all in vain for we're certain the Scouts have learned and will long remember what it takes some businessmen and housewives years to discover — "you've got to have more coming in than going out if you intend to remain solvent."

Who's Kidding Who?

By what set of double standards can a state legalize one form of gambling while outlawing another, smile and hold out its hand for its cut on gambling of one color, and bat to earth those who engage in another?

Either gambling is illegal or it isn't. It doesn't matter whether it's the slap of the pastebounds, the monotonous chant of the caller while players cover numbers in bingo, or the click of the inovries. In our book, betting on the outcome of an act or event is gambling.

Perhaps Illinois legislators haven't been able to figure this out in view of the shining example set forth over past years in the form of bingo as practiced in many church parlors.

Now we're not against gambling in any way, shape or form as a personal vice. But we don't like discrimination, and to legalize bingo and outlaw crap shooting and other games of skill and chance is rank discrimination.

Anyone who thinks the rackets have not or will not have a hand in any form of gambling is not naive. He's downright blind to the facts of life as they exist today.

Remember the late Jake "Greasy Thumb" Guzik, Al Capone's bookkeeper and unsavory syndicate character. His efforts to buy stock in Arlington Park in the early 50's were legend and many. This was a public effort for a mobster to legally buy into legal gambling.

What isn't common knowledge is the fact that the prime owner of one of the nation's biggest tracks last winter went to one of the nation's largest banks to borrow a sizable amount. According to this borrower, the syndicate had offered to buy the track at a figure far above the wildest going rate.

The borrower, being a person of national prominence and of good name — and not particularly in need of personal funds — declined the syndicate offer, went to a respected bank instead.

As the writers say, the bank approved the loan with alacrity.

Now, normally banks and bungtails just aren't mentioned in the same breath. But no one can dispute the sound business judgment of the bank in making the loan.

If the deal ever goes sour the bank can always peddle a top track to a few well-heeled, bad-intentioned characters for many times the going rate.

That's how profitable gambling is. And the punks aren't missing a trick these days.

Asking for Trouble

Most everyone would like to make more money . . . to get a greater return for whatever goods or services he produces. But attempts to make more money by purely artificial and arbitrary means usually lead to trouble.

In 12 midwest states, members of a new farm organization have combined to hold livestock off the market in order to create scarcity and thus force prices up. If successful, price of pork chops would jump from last year's average of about 80¢ a pound to more than $1. Bacon would rocket from last year's 69¢ average to about 80¢. Other livestock prices would rise proportionately.

Observers doubt if this effort can succeed. For one thing, animals can't be kept off the market indefinitely. They keep eating and growing. If marketed late, in a too-heavy, too-fat state, they bring reduced prices per pound.

Discounting this practical problem, the wisdom of these farmers is open to doubt.

The artificially-induced price boosts, if they should come, would hit all consumers. Resentment against this form of price-fixing would be enormous.

With pork chops and other meat skyrocketing, consumers might just manage to get by on less meat. Less demand would mean a more favorable over-the-counter price.

Any group which tries to undermine the free market is asking for trouble . . . in the form of tough legislation and regulation.

Courthouse Notebook —

By LOU BURKIN

The state legislature works in wondrous ways; its folly to perform and as fine an example of this as you would want to see is in the new proposal to reduce the legal age for buying a bang of booze from 21 to 19 years for boys.

This proposal came in an amendment to a bill raising the 18-year limit for girls who want to sample a martini or one of those pretty frothy things that the distaff drinkers seem to favor.

Only in the strange mental processes of the state legislators could a proposal to raise the age limit for female drinking be equated with a compromise to lower the male drinking age.

Actually the legislators could have eliminated one of our more important problems by reducing the drinking age to 12, thus doing away with illegal teen-age drinking altogether.

This would also eliminate another law enforcement problem; what to do with teenagers caught driving while intoxicated.

You can't charge them with drunken driving because they obviously can't be intoxicated if they can't buy liquor until they are 21, or so it would seem from some of the court decisions stemming from the arrests of illegal imbibers.

No doubt this proposal to reduce the legal age limit for drinking stems from the fight to reduce the voting age in Illinois.

Those who advocate voting for 18-year-olds argue that if they are old enough to fight they are old enough to vote, so it naturally follows that if they are old enough to vote then they are old enough to drink.

State Representative Bill Murphy was given a rough time by radio and television commentators during the past week because of his sponsorship of the bill to legalize bingo in Illinois.

Some of them inferred that Rep. Murphy was aligned with unsavory elements because of the widespread fear that legalized bingo would be taken over by the racketeers and hoodlums, but this seems to us like a bad rap.

Rep. Murphy is pretty close to the feelings of the people in his district and particularly those of western Lake County who have long depended on bingo and similar indoor sports to support volunteer fire departments, maintain subdivision roads, and build their churches.

The Antioch legislator feels that bingo would help these groups and he wants to give them a chance to vote for the game.

This seems like pretty good representation for the people who sent him to Springfield.

There was good news for Chain O'Lakes resort operators and real estate developers in the recent report that the waters of the lakes were clean and unpolluted at this time.

Repeated warnings that the waters were polluted and dangerous have served to discredit the great area as a recreation area and has cost the county thousands of dollars in possible revenue.

This area is one of Lake County's greatest assets and should be developed as an attractive recreation area through the cooperation of the county and the villages involved in the area.

The county zoning and building department should work with the owners of resorts in the area who want to upgrade their spots and make them more attractive, and we think the county should set up a promotion agency to help sell this whole area to vacationers and prospective visitors.

New motels, boat launching areas, marinas, and restaurants could bring new thousands into this area to bolster the economy of all of Lake County, but the owners can't do it without a little cooperation from the county.

And the county can't do it unless the owners show some inclination to improve their property.

Together they can make the Chain O'Lakes region the wondrous recreation area that it should be.

Your State Senator Reports

By State Senator Robert McClory

In case you don't like "what's going on in Springfield," now is the time to write, wire, or phone your State Senator and State Representatives. These legislators are not infallible, nor are they psychic. If you, the citizen and voter, have information, suggestions, questions, or advice on any pending legislation, you owe it to yourself and to your legislative representatives to communicate with them. It has been your State Senator's experience that the average citizen, who is not coerced by a lobby or a pressure group, rarely makes his views known.

In the course of this present session, which ends June 30, hundreds of letters and cards will be received by the members of the General Assembly from public employees who will be urging increased pension benefits, improved working conditions and other changes which may be the subject of legislation.

Organized labor and associations of businessmen, farmers and educators will see to it that their members pack the mailboxes at the State Capitol with unequivocal requests to vote for—or against—particular bills affecting their interests.

But, unorganized labor, small businessmen, and just plain citizens—not affiliated with any group maintaining a lobby in Springfield—probably will not be heard from.

You may ask: "Well, how do I write to my State Senator and Representatives?" The answer is to write to them "In care of the State House, Springfield." And when you write, explain briefly and logically your position. The information or suggestion you give may not have come previously to the legislator's attention; or your straightforward statement may convince him to follow your advice.

Stereotyped, printed and mimeographed postcards and letters don't carry much weight, in general. One thoughtful, personal letter is worth a thousand cards demanding a legislator to "Vote Yes" or "Vote No" on a pending bill.

Members of the legislature are like other people. They strive to do their best as representatives of the people. They can be helped in their efforts by sound advice from "back home."

SIDELIGHTS

SPRINGFIELD

By Rep. PAUL SIMON

"Money, money, everywhere, and still the state did sink."

The original version was about water, but right now money represents the big problem in Illinois, and how to raise it is a matter of disagreement.

Governor Kerner's message calling for a record state budget of more than three billion dollars was not pleasant news for the citizens of the state, nor for the members of the Legislature who must act on it.

It was, however, realistic as to the actual financial requirements of the state.

Our mushrooming grade school and high school population alone accounts for an increase of 100 million dollars in the budget, without any increase in the basic formula for the aid.

The Governor's facing the financial problems head on was both courageous and right.

But there are many of us who disagree with that portion of his means of raising revenue which calls for an increase in the sales tax. If the sales tax is increased 1¢ for the cities, Illinois will have the highest sales tax in the United States.

This is the tax on essentials. It is a tax on a loaf of bread and a pound of hamburger.

For a retired couple living on Social Security payments totalling $1200 for the year, it means an increase in taxation on their income of about 30 per cent.

The sales tax is unique in that the lower the income, the higher the percent of your income goes for taxation. The higher your income, the less you spend on items covered by the sales tax.

If the sales tax increase is passed, Illinois will have the most regressive tax structure of any of the states.

In addition to being unfair to people with limited incomes, the sales tax works a hardship on merchants of Illinois living in areas bordering on neighboring states. They must compete with lower taxes in neighboring states.

Many of us feel that other means of raising money for the state should be used rather than increase the tax on a loaf of bread. The sales tax and property tax are already too high.

Whether the sales tax increase is adopted or some other form of taxation, will be one of the big fights during the next weeks of the legislative session.

Possible alternatives to a sales tax increase include an increase in the race track tax, a tax on laundry and dry-cleaning, a tax on vending machines, a gasoline tax increase earmarked for higher education, and finally—and not last in importance—some reductions in spending for certain areas of state government.

If citizens of Illinois want a voice in how their taxes are to be increased, now is the time to express themselves.

If there is no outcry against the sales tax increase, it will probably pass; but my vote will not support it.

It's Doughnut Day
In Lake Villa June 9

LAKE VILLA—The Salvation Army has been given official permission to hold its annual tag day, "Doughnut Day," in Lake Villa on Friday, June 9.

Village Clerk Neil Reidel has notified "Doughnut Day" Headquarters of the approval, reports Mrs. Earl O. Ehrhardt of Elmhurst, suburban chairman for the area-wide tag day.

On "Doughnut Day" local residents working as volunteer taggers will "sell" the doughnut-shaped brown paper tags that are familiar symbols of The Salvation Army's help for the unfortunate.

Lake Villa will be one of approximately 150 suburban communities in Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, Will and Lake (Indiana) counties that will observe "Doughnut Day" simultaneously with Chicago.

Tree Farm Idea Grows in State

A tree farm woodland that would stretch from Cairo to South Bend in a 481-foot-wide strip is growing in Illinois this spring.

The woodland would be made up of the 19,857 acres certified under the industry-sponsored tree farm program in Illinois, according to A. C. Foley of Paris, chairman of the Illinois Forest Industries Committee.

With more good forest management on Illinois woodlands, the park could be widened considerably. Industry and government foresters cooperating in the tree farm movement say tree farming is a way to tell others about good forestry; the 178 tree farm signs in Illinois signify that our woodlands are growing timber for today and the future, Foley said.

"Illinois' woodlands are the state's most valuable renewable resource. They can grow some of the finest oak, walnut, pine, cottonwood as well as many other species. Imagine the potential wealth if all our forests were given good protection from fire, grazing and other destructive practices.

Other values of multiple use, aided by proper cutting practices, are soil and water conservation, food and habitat for wildlife, and recreation."

To receive tree farm recognition for having demonstrated sound woodland management, landowners should write Howard W. Fox, chairman of the Illinois Tree Farm Committee, 59 East Van Buren St., Chicago 5.

To qualify for certification, a property must contain at least three acres of pines or 10 acres of native hardwoods; must be protected from fire, insects, disease and destructive grazing; and must be harvested to insure continuing crops of trees.

The Illinois tree farm program is sponsored by the Illinois Forest Industries Committee with cooperation of the Illinois Technical Forestry Association, which provides field services for inspections by its memberships of state, federal, university, industrial and private foresters.

Local Schools Join In Sending Gifts To Needy Overseas

Four Antioch area schools are participating in the Junior Red Cross program under which Lake County school children will have sent gift boxes to some 1,800 children in other parts of the world by the end of the school year.

The schools are Antioch Community Consolidated, Antioch High School, and Emmons and Grass Lake Grade Schools.

The Junior Red Cross gift box program gives American boys and girls, in school groups, an opportunity to prepare and send boxes filled with gifts to children in other countries. These boxes are distributed by other Red Cross societies to individual children in schools and institutions and to child refugees.

The contents of the boxes are purchased by the children preparing them. Normally, the items included fall into three categories: educational items, health and comfort articles, and toys and personal items.

The boxes are prepared in the schools and collected by the Lake County chapter of the American Red Cross.

They are marked for boys or girls, packed in large cartons, and shipped to the Red Cross warehouse in Landover, Md. From there they are sent to children all over the world.

The individual gift boxes are marked: "Gift From the Schools of the United States of America—through the American Junior Red Cross." There is a blank label where the name of the donating school, its city and state are entered.

President Don G. Mitchell of General Telephone & Electronics Corporation, says: "If management fails to apportion the benefits of greater productivity on a fair sharing basis among share owners, employees and customers, if labor takes all of the productivity increases in the form of higher wages, if government keeps increasing the tax load without making sure that it has first eliminated waste and extravagance of its present tax revenues—there won't be anything left for anybody. There isn't any bottomless bucket of gold in this economy or any other economy."

Opposition Girds
To Fight State
Sales Tax Boost

SPRINGFIELD — The passage of bills now awaiting action in the Illinois General Assembly to increase the state sales tax by one-half cent and to permit cities to levy an additional tax in the same amount will meet with vigorous opposition from a group of representatives who call themselves the "Border Brigade."

Rep. Ralph Stephenson, Moline, who conceived the idea of organized opposition to the new taxes said the brigade is composed of 26 representatives whose districts border states adjoining Illinois. So far, all members are Republicans, but he said, "after the folks back home hear of the movement he thought some of the Democrat members of the House from the same border district would join the brigade."

Stephenson said the passage of the bills would "mean a loss of millions of dollars to retailers in the 59 border counties of Illinois because Illinois citizens would cross state lines and trade in cities on the borders of neighboring states to avoid paying the tax increases."

"This will not only mean a great financial loss to business men in border cities who have already suffered considerable loss because of present taxes, but will also lower considerably the tax the state expects to get if these bills are enacted into law. We cannot in all good conscience support these bills which are contrary to the best interest of the people of our district."

Stephenson said the 59 border counties have a total of 51 representatives in the Illinois House, 30 Republicans and 21 Democrats.

Included in the brigade are Robert Coulson, Waukegan (Lake County); W. J. Murphy, Petaluma, (Lake County); and A. B. McConnell, Woodstock (McHenry County).

Wholesale prices of butter and American cheese in March were above both February this year and March 1960.

Vocalaires Card

11th Annual Spring
Musicals May 12-14

On May 12-13-14 at 8 p. m. at Highland School in Libertyville, the Frank G. Hough Co. Vocalaires will present their 11th annual Spring musical. Entitled "Music, Etc.", the musical will feature many special musical guests and attractions.

The Vocalaires, now in their 11th year, have in the past enjoyed musical success in and around Lake County. Singing at various functions throughout the area and presenting benefit musicals keep this musical group busy seven months of the year.

Appearing in "Music Etc." will be such groups as: The Martin Sisters, three sisters who have sung together since grade school and have appeared at various functions throughout Lake County; the Octaves, a group of eight singers who have appeared in the last three Vocalaire musicals and have received wide acclaim throughout Lake County; a new group called "The Four of Us," consisting of four men who will sing barbershop songs, and the Art Quinn Quintet, made up of musicians who have played in such bands as Harry James, Charlie Ventura, Ralph Marterie, and Bob Crosby. This group will furnish accompaniment throughout the show.

As a special attraction, William Philip of Lake Forest will sing Scottish songs. Philip is well known throughout the Lake County and North Shore areas for his Scottish renditions and appears in full Scottish attire.

The Vocalaires, under the direction of Arthur Quinn of Chicago, will feature such songs as "All the Things You Are," "Moonglow," "Tenderly," "The Sound of Music," "When You're Smiling," and "Take Me Out to the Ball Game."

Proceeds will go to organizations that promote recreation and guidance for the youth of the Libertyville and Mundelein area. This year's recipients are the Libertyville Little League and Mundelein Babe Ruth League, which together furnish recreation and guidance for over 1,000 youths.

New Recipe for Staying Young—
Ignore Birthdays

By Mrs. Pearl Kappell

Well, the secret is out. When Mrs. Katherine Archer of Woodcrest Subd. was the surprised guest of honor at a birthday party in her home on Sunday, May 7, her age was revealed.

It isn't known that Mrs. Archer has ever deliberately concealed her age. She simply ignores it, with the result that she looks and acts considerably younger than her years. She tiles ceramic tables and kitchen walls with equal vigor, and with bland disregard for words of caution from her neighbors and daughters. She's an ardent gardener and spends most of the summer working in her yard.

The party to celebrate her 80th birthday was arranged by her two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Codish of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and Mrs. Dorothy Lindeborg, of Detroit, Mich. ALL ABOUT BABIES...

A Public Service of the National Baby Care CouncilBy William Kitz
Member, National Association of Science Writers, Editor, All
About Babies

There are usually a million and one questions the new mother has about her first baby. At one time she put these questions to her mother, her grandmother or an aunt who came to visit.

Today, the new mother living in the suburbs, usually at some distance from her family, turns elsewhere for the answers. One of the individuals she consults most often is her diaper service routeman or route woman.

The nation's diaper service industry trains its routemen and route women to answer most of these questions, except those that have to do with medical advice. Here are some asked most often by new mothers:

Q. How fast do babies grow?
A. About six to 12 inches the first year.

Q. How long will the soft spot in baby's skull remain?

A. Normally, for about a year.

Q. When will baby really smile?

A. When he's between four to six weeks old.

Q. Will picking up baby when he cries spoil him?

A. Many child psychologists say, no, not if you cuddle and soothe baby.

Q. Should I change the diaper during the night when baby's asleep?

A. Professional diaper services impregnate the diapers they produce with a chemical that inhibits the breakdown of urine into skin-irritating ammonia for at least six hours. Thus protected, it is wiser not to disturb baby as long as he is sleeping.

Q. Is it normal for the eyes of a newborn baby to quiver and the eyelids to twitch?

A. Both are perfectly normal for the first week or until baby's eyes develop more.

Q. When will baby sit up?

A. As soon as baby's back muscles develop sufficiently, and he has enough control over them.

Q. When will baby cut his first tooth?

A. It varies but usually between the sixth and seventh month.

Q. Is it necessary to burp baby?

A. You should during the first few weeks, once during feeding and again at the end.

Q. How can I be sure baby's bottle is the correct temperature?

A. An old reliable method is to test a few drops of milk on your wrist.

Q. How much sleep does baby need?

A. During the first month, baby will sleep between 18 and 20 hours a day.

Publisher's Role
In Driver Safety

The importance of educating readers to the differences in expressway driving will be among the major traffic safety topics to be discussed at the 4th annual Illinois Editor and Publisher Highway Traffic Safety Seminar at the Leland Hotel in Springfield, June 16-17, according to Robert F. Greenaway, Seminar president and editor of the DeKalb Chronicle.

Greenaway pointed out that rapid development of the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways makes it imperative that newspapers and other publications stress the fact that expressway driving requires different techniques from conventional motoring.

He said that Matthew C. Selski, director of the Chicago Motor Club's safety and traffic engineering department, would address the seminar on "What Your Drivers Should Know About Expressways."

Selski will be one of the featured speakers on Friday, June 16.

In addition to the talk by Selski, several other nationally known traffic safety authorities will appear on the 1961 Seminar program, said Greenaway.

James E. Bulger, Seminar secretary and vice president of the Chicago Motor Club, said that a seminar innovation this year would be panel discussions on traffic safety by three separate groups—daily editors and publishers, weekly editors and publishers, and industrial editors.

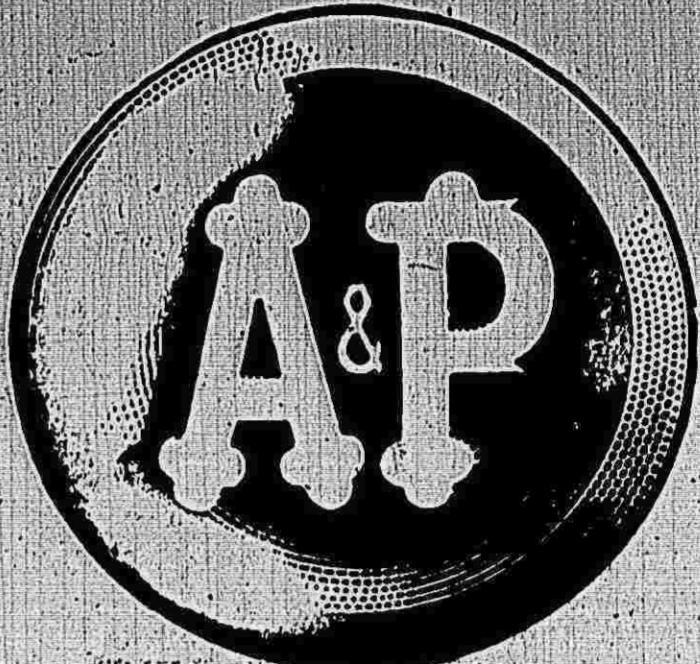

The Seminar is a non-profit corporation chartered to help the various news media in their fight to reduce the traffic death and accident toll on Illinois highways.

Sequoit Trackmen Set 4 Records at Relays

Shatter One Meet, Three Local Marks

Antioch High trackmen shattered three school records and set a new frosh-soph meet record for the 880-yard relay Saturday in the Elmwood (Ill.) High School Relays.

Bob Weber cleared 11-6 in the pole vault to win a first, setting a new Antioch High record, and joined teammates Dave White and Bob Barnstable in a three-way team tie for second in that event.

Running well, the frosh-soph 880-yard relay team set a new Elmwood Relays' mark of 1:40.1 to take the event. The time also establishes a new record for ATHS. Members of the relay team were Ritch Fitch, Ray Petersen, Greg Gates, and Rich Fowles, running anchors. The team scored second in the 440-relay event.

The senior varsity 880-yard relay team came in third during their heat with a time of 1:36.7 to set a new Antioch High School record. Running the event were Lance Keisler, Jim Proslis, Bob Weber and Ken Truelson.

Coach Emery Chandler, pleased with the showing of his charges in garnering 30 points, had forecast points for his 440-yard varsity relay. However, the team ran out of the money when Bob Weber and Lance Keisler, key men, were participating in the band concert Saturday at Villa Park and were unable to run.

Sequoits Jumble Line-Up in 9-0 Tourney Defeat

Experimenting in preparation for closing games in the conference season, Coach Larry Leon cleared the bench and shifted playing positions with abandon as the Sequoits' ball club dropped a 9-0 decision to Grant in the opening game of the district tournament Monday at Fox Lake.

Round Lake, the only other entry in the mid-season breather, drew a bye Monday and met Grant Tuesday.

Grant's Grier, throwing easily, held the Sequoits to one hit, a single by Lang, and struck out 4.

Joe Wolf, pitching for Antioch, gave up eight hits and nine runs in five innings. Bill Ozga pitched the final frame for the Sequoits.

Peak Boating Season Seen

Pleasure boating should soar to new heights of popularity in 1961, according to Chicago National Boat Show executives who have completed final tally on the most successful exposition in the show's 28 year history.

The 1961 show featured a grand total of 566 boats. Outboard runabouts were the largest single class on display. There were 136 of them.

Sailboats offered the second largest category. There were 82 on display. Outboard convertibles were third with 71 on exhibit, followed by outboard cruisers with 54; outboard utilities numbered 53.

The remainder of the show fleet was made up of 43 inboard cruisers, 23 canoes, 17 inboard runabouts, 13 pontoon boats, 11 houseboats, 11 inboard convertibles, 10 outboard specialty boats, nine inboard-outboard runabouts, nine kayaks, nine outboard hardtops, seven inboard-outboard convertibles, six inboard-outboard cruisers and two inboard hardtops.

Wood still appeared to be a prominent boat building material despite the complete dominance of fiberglass. A total of 284 boats in the show were made of fiberglass, 103 were of wood, 89 craft were of aluminum, nine of steel and 21 were of other kinds of material.

Several important marine developments occurred at the show. There was an agreement to launch a nationwide campaign to encourage sharing of the waterways by all water sport enthusiasts.

The National Safe Boating Assn. urged adoption of uniform rules of the road and lighting regulations for all inland waters, final plans for National Safe Boating Week, July 2-8, were made, and a massive boating education program to reach approximately 10,000 Illinois water sport enthusiasts was adopted by the Midwest Small Boat advisory committee.

Track Squad Edges Grant At Ingleside

Surprising depth in field events proved the measure by which Antioch High's strong track squad turned back Grant, 61 1/2-56 1/2, at Ingleside last Friday.

The Sequoits' thinclads swept first in all field events except the shot, occasionally doubling up on Grant, to offset a slight margin gained by the hosts in running events.

Field winners for Antioch were Bob Weber in the pole vault; Bud Dittman and Brian Elliott, tied for first in the high jump, Lance Keisler in the broad jump and Nick Nicholei, discus.

Stealing the show, however, was Antioch's speedy Ken Truelson, who scored three firsts in running events by taking the 100, 220 and low hurdles. His time was 10.7 in the 100; 24. for the 220 and he cleared the hurdles in 21.0.

Warren Golfers Edge Antioch And Grayslake

Antioch High golfers went down before Warren's squad for the second time in a three-way meet with Gurnee and Grayslake.

Warren nipped Antioch 7 1/2-7 and Grayslake 7-3.

Medalist in the Warren meet was Antioch's Les Miller with a 44, while Lowell Dixon and Louis Skoff were low for Warren with 47.

Skoff, Wayne, Tighaara and Don Holmquist scored two each for Warren, with Ron Dindal adding 1 1/2. Miller tallied both Antioch points and Anderson added 1/2.

Drivers Set for Speedway First

The final trial runs of the 1961 season were held at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night as 35 cars and drivers tested their machines in preparation of the season opener of modified stock car racing next Sunday night.

In the past two weekends some 75 cars and drivers have tried out their cars and all have been through the inspection lines, some two times. Many of the drivers this week were tagged as having approved cars, as the safety committee found their cars complete in every respect for racing competition.

Judging from the trial runs, this year promises to be one of the most competitive of any season ever to be seen at the speedway. Through the medium of inspection of safety features the cars are built safer than ever before and the boys are taking great pride in the workmanship of their machines. Some have spent the entire winter building their machines.

During this Sunday's trial runs two cars suffered severe damage as the drivers drove them into the concrete wall during warmup mishaps.

Both Bobby Dodd of Waukegan and Don Kelling of Wheeling escaped uninjured, but their cars will require extensive repair.

Bob Karry, Waukegan, was perhaps the fastest man on the track, turning his Chevrolet powered Ford coupe at average speeds of over 53 miles per hour.

Opening night is expected to draw a field of some 50 cars and drivers as the battle for the season championship begins.

Time trials will start at 7:15 p.m.; racing time at 8:30 p.m. The speedway is located on West Washington Street between the Green Bay Road and U. S. 41.

Third Straight Lifts Locals From Cellar

Sequoit High batsmen came to life last night, banging away for 11 hits to edge Wauconda here 8-4.

In notching their third straight win in the second half of the conference race, Coach Larry Leon's squad jumped from a last-place tie to fourth place and assured rivals of tougher sledding from here on out.

Bright spot of the evening was Sequoit work at the plate. Entering the fray with a puny 101 batting average, the locals did some shelling for a change.

Joe Pleviak led the fray with three for four, including one double. Jack Thompson contributed two, one a triple, as did Chuck Maxwell and Deryl Denman.

Jim Brownlee, a recent graduate from the frosh-sophs who now holds down third, contributed one single, as did Bill Ozga.

Both teams were scoreless until the fourth, when Wauconda opened up for one. Antioch came back with two after two were out, on a walk to Greaves, who stole second from where he scored on Pleviak's double to left. Brownlee bunted safely to score Pleviak from second.

Antioch came back with two more in the fifth when Denman singled home runners on third and second.

Wauconda came back with three in the top of the sixth, knotting the count at 4 all, but Antioch took over in its half with one run by Pleviak who singled, was sacrificed to third on Brownlee's bunt, and beat out a throw to the plate on Thompson's grounder.

Denman, on the mound for Antioch, gave up six hits, walked four and struck out five.

The VFW Auxiliary will sponsor a dance at Downey Thursday, May 18. They will leave the VFW hall at 6:20 p.m. Anyone wishing to donate sandwiches can leave them at the home of Mrs. Gordon Blumenreich on Grand Ave., not later than 6 p.m.

Blood Bank Is Life-Saving Agency Where You Can Make Your Deposit

An ample supply of fresh whole blood is one of the most important life-saving tools of the operating room. Miss Sandra Orr, technician at the Jacob Blumberg Blood Bank, told a group of young visitors to the blood bank recently.

The visitors were members of the Penwacris, junior nursing group sponsored by the Condell Hospital Auxiliary, who devote many of their after school hours to assisting the nurses at Condell Memorial Hospital in Libertyville and in bringing cheer and a boost in spirits to the patients in the hospital.

During the tour of the blood bank the teenage nurses witnessed the drawing of blood from a donor and the processing and classification of the blood undergone before it is stored in a special temperature-controlled refrigerator where it is kept until used in the operating room at one of Lake County's hospitals.

Steps taken to type and test the blood from new members was explained by Miss Orr and Mrs. Beverly Kaeser, assistant technician, and the junior nurses were also told of the importance of correct typing and the dangers of disease transfer by transfusion if the donor had suffered from certain communicable diseases.

A brief history of the 10 year old blood bank which was founded by the Lake County Medical Society through the cooperation of the Jacob Blumberg family to provide a ready supply of blood for emergencies was included in the discussion of the blood bank by Miss Orr.

In citing advantages of membership in the blood bank Miss Orr pointed out: "You can get an ample supply of free blood in an emergency even when you are traveling because of the Blumberg Blood Bank membership in the Clearinghouse of the American Blood Bank Association."

"Your membership card serves as a blood credit card which is recognized in almost all hospitals," the technician explained.

Following the tour each of the teenage nurses was given a blood bank membership application and urged to have it filled out and returned so their families would be members of the Blumberg facility. The tour of the blood bank was arranged particularly for those members of the Penwacris who are planning to enter the nursing profession after graduation from Libertyville-Fremont High School where they are members of the junior and senior classes.

SCOUT NEWS

By Mrs. Pearl Kapell
The newly-formed Brownie Troop 138, from Oakland School, held their first investiture ceremonies on Monday, May 1, at the school. The troop is sponsored by the Oakland P.T.A.

Mrs. Evelyn Sedivec, Neighborhood Chairman of the Girl Scouts was present and invested the leader of the new troop, Mrs. Dorothy Derderian, and her co-leader, Mrs. Ruth Sonnen, in their new offices. Five of the 12 girls in the troop had previously been invested. They are Sheila Cullen, Stephanie Derderian, Rosina Heldstern, Susan Sarbacker and Nancy Zoll.

The new leaders then invested the six new members present: Donna Garrison, Pamela Kruse, Rita Lunsford, Suzanne Lunsford, Karen Sonnen and Robin Sundin. Beverly Barrett was unable to be present because of illness and will be invested at the next meeting of the troop.

At the close of the ceremonies, refreshments were served by the committee members with the help of the Brownies. Members of the families of the new Brownies were present to view the proceedings.

Plans are being made for the Girl

Scout Day Camp to be held under the auspices of the Lakeview Girl Scout Council for this area. Mrs. June Olsen of Mundelein is Day Camp Chairman. At the present time three sites have been chosen for the camp: Chain O' Lakes Park, Third Lake, and Illinois State Park.

Mrs. Lois Ward of Channel Lake is director of the Chain O' Lakes camp. Camping dates are June 20, 21, 22 and 23 and June 27, 28, 29 and 30. The camps will be for both Brownie and Intermediate troops. Mrs. Ward says that the response to her call for counselors has been excellent, but more are needed, particularly a camp nurse or first aider.

Anyone wishing to donate some time will be welcome, whether or not you have had any previous girl scout training, and you may attend on any days you choose. If interested, call Mrs. Ward at Antioch 2259.

If you want to sell — phone 43 or 44 and tell.

THE FLAMELESS ELECTRIC KITCHEN

WHEN YOU MODERNIZE YOUR KITCHEN, REMEMBER...

A flameless electric kitchen won't go out of date

The lady above demonstrates the amazing flexibility of a flameless electric kitchen. Because there are no fuel pipes to get in the way, she can have her automatic electric dryer wherever she wants it. There are no vents to install, no pilot to burn. So the entire laundry unit can fit into a small area behind attractive sliding doors.

Of course, the electric range is the heart of every flameless electric kitchen. With it, you can cook your meals without overheating your kitchen (or yourself). The oven is insulated on all six sides, not just five. Hardly any heat escapes. The surface units transfer heat directly into pans and into foods—not into your kitchen.

And because electric ranges burn no fuel, no dirt is created. Your kitchen (and everything in it) stays clean twice as long.

Before you spend a penny on kitchen remodeling, get a professionally-prepared plan based on your specific needs and budget. An experienced kitchen specialist can show you how imaginative planning can save you steps and eliminate unnecessary bending and reaching. He can also help you work out color schemes and lighting effects and help solve storage problems.

For the names and addresses of kitchen modernization specialists in your area, call your nearest Public Service Company office.

Points to Consider in Planting Shade Trees Outlined by Horticulturist

The Kenosha County Dutch Elm disease advisory committee has made up a set of recommendations for the planting of shade trees, according to Lee Smith, county horticultural agent. The leaflet of recommendations is available from the county agent's office.

The American elm has been the main shade tree to be planted because it makes a good shade tree, grows fast, and its initial expense is low. With the coming of Dutch elm disease it is easy to see why communities should not depend entirely on one species of tree for shade. The elm can still be planted, however, in doing so, one must remember that the elm must be sprayed to protect it from Dutch elm disease.

Shade trees should be selected with a lot of thought as to how they will look when mature. Trees should not conflict with the safety signs along the streets; consideration should also be given to overhead utilities and space available near sidewalks and driveways.

The recommendation list is divided into three parts: large deciduous trees—40 feet or more; small deciduous trees under 40 feet; and coniferous trees.

The large trees include white and green ash, basswood, ginkgo, thornless honey-locust, hackberry, horse-chestnut, tulip tree and the oaks and maples. The small trees listed are: columnar, Norway maple, little leaf linden, ginkgo maple, nodesto ash and American hophornbeam.

Conifers are not recommended for planting along the street, Smith said. They make good shade trees in backyards where space is available. Most of the conifers become very large trees. Those included on the list are: white cedar, European larch, Norway and white spruce, Black Hills spruce, Colorado blue spruce, Serbian spruce, Norway pine, and Douglas fir.

There are many trees not included on the list because they are generally considered as specimen trees, such as the various flowering crab-apples, cherries, hawthorns, etc. Most of these will add much to the landscape, but one should remember that many of the crabapples and cherries should be sprayed as they are subject to the same diseases and insects that attack the apple and cherry trees grown for the fruit.

The recommended list of shade trees was compiled by Warren Taylor, City Planner; Richard Lind, county park superintendent; and Lee Smith, county horticultural agent.

4-H Clubs Offer Varied Fare to City-Farm Youth

Lake County 4-H Club members, in addition to carrying one or more of the nearly 50 different projects offered, can participate in a number of extra activities, states Farm Adviser, Ray T. Nicholas.

These activities are designed to provide club members with training and experiences not associated with the project itself. Club members with training and experiences not associated with the project itself, are advised to participate in at least one extra activity in order to secure the most help from the 4-H club program.

Club members may participate in one or more of the following activities offered in Lake County: demonstrations, safety, music, recreation, citizenship, health, public speaking, and camping.

In order to be enrolled in one of the 16 agricultural 4-H clubs in Lake County, a member must carry at least one project. He is also expected to keep an accurate record of the project, attend at least two-thirds of the local club meetings, appear on the club program with a talk or a demonstration, and exhibit the project at a local show or county 4-H club show.

June 1 is the last date for enrolling in a club this year. Further particulars about 4-H club work may be obtained by writing Ray T. Nicholas, Lake County Farm Adviser, Box 177, Grayslake.
